

The Pre-Raphaelite Society has a regional group members in London and the South of England, based in London. The group is a chance for current Society members to gather in a relaxed and casual atmosphere to socialize and will be open to all PRS members. Events occur at least quarterly and members are encouraged to bring interested friends or family members to some events.

Members will enjoy activities such a pub meets, a book club, local visits and activities, plus a lecture programme to highlight postgraduate students, early career professionals, or independent scholars. We are accepting abstracts for our programme and future lectures. Please contact us with a 100-200 word abstract and a short CV or covering letter.

If you are interested, please contact Madeleine Pearce, the London and Southern Group coordinator, (nouveaudigital@gmail.com) or send the survey below to:
