

The PRS - Membership Application Form

The aim of the Society is to encourage the study of the works and lives of, and also promote the wider appreciation of, the Pre-Raphaelite Brotherhood and their successors. Founded in 1988, the Society has published writings relating to the PRB and their successors; held many meetings and lectures; organised visits to places of interest, including important exhibitions of national and international interest. The Society welcomes new members and to join, simply complete the membership form below.
